- 1.0- SUPERVISORS should ensure that the following instructions are brought to the notice of the candidates under examination.
- 2.0- TEACHERS should ensure that the candidates are able to carry out the instructions given below and are aware of the penalties for irregularities or misconduct.
- 3.0- GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES
 - 3.1- Be at your seat in the Examination Room five minutes before the time fixed for the examination in the various papers. Morning sessions will normally start at 8.30 am. And the afternoon sessions will start at 2 pm.
 - 3.2- A candidate who arrives late will be required to give a satisfactory reason to the supervisor. Except in exceptional circumstances, a paper will not be given to any candidate who is more than half an hour late. Absolute punctuality is essential for certain papers.
 - 3.3- If an examination paper for which you are not entered is handed to you, or if the the questions indicated that a map or other material should also have been given out inform the Supervisor at once.
 - 3.4- Attend carefully to any general directions that may be given at the head of a paper, e.g directions limiting the number of questions that should be answered.
 - 3.5- Check to ensure that each page of your question paper is printed.
 - 3.6- Write your name, your index number as well as the name of the subject on the first page of each answer book or sheet of each set of papers you use. Your index number must be written in clear figures in the space provided on every sheet of answer book.
 - 3.7- Write on both sides of the paper, but do not use the margins. Begin the answer to each separate part of a question on a fresh line.
 - 3.8- Write the number of the question clearly in the left-hand margin at the beginning of each answer. Do not copy the question. Be careful to use the same system of numbering as appears in the question paper. Leave a blank line after the answer to each question.
 - 3.9- Write your answer with black or blue ink. You may use fountain pen or ball point pen. Pencils should only be used for diagrams. Bring mathematical and drawing instruments for subjects for which they will be needed.
 - 3.10- Read each question carefully. Much time may be wasted in writing down information that is not asked for and no marks are given for it.
 - 3.11- Do not write so much upon one or two questions as to leave yourself not enough time to answer others which you are able to answer.
 - 3.12- As soon as notice is given to stop, ARRANGE YOUR ANSWER BOOK AND SHEET IN THE CORRECT ORDER (this is normally the order in which you answered the question). Make sure that they all have your index number written upon them. Fasten them together at the left hand corner and hand them UNFOLDED to the Supervisor.
 - 3.13- Withdrawal from the examination should have been notified to the Council before any paper of the examination are taken.
- 4.0- CAUTION
 - 4.1- You are not allowed to leave the examination room before the end of the period allocated to the paper except by special permission of the supervisor. NO CANDIDATE SO PERMITTED TO LEAVE MAY TAKE A QUESTION PAPER OUT OF THE EXAMINATION ROOM.
 - 4.2- Do not leave a sheet of paper you have written on or your answer in such a position that another candidate can read them. You should not give or obtain unfair assistance, or attempt to do so, whether by copying or in any, and your work should not show proof of such unfair assistance.
 - 4.3- No communication whatsoever in whatever manner between candidates or with outsiders is allowde during the examination.
 - 4.4- You are not allowed to have in your possession or in your proximity while in the examination room, any book, notes, papers or any other materials whatsoever except the correct question papers and any materials expressly authorized by the Kenya National Examinations Council.
 - 4.5- You may only use mathematical tables printed by the Kenya National examinations Council, and these should not contain any additional notes except the printed information. If you are using a calculator as permitted by the Regulation, it should be the specified non programmable calculator. If in doubt, check with the supervisor.
 - 4.6- You must return immediately to the supervisor any question paper that has bad marks or is badly printed.
 - 4.7- You must not take any used or unused writing paper out of the examination room. Any rough work must be done on the official answer paper and, if not to be submitted with the answers, must be left on the desk to be collected by the Supervisor and destroyed.
 - 4.8- Disorderly conduct or causing of disturbance in or near the examination room will be treated as an examination irregularity.
- 5.0- PENALTY FOR EXAMINATION IRREGULARITIES
 - 5.1- Candidate who commits an examination irregularity in any paper will have the results for the WHOLE SUBJECT cancelled. Such a candidate will not be entitled to a result for the subject.
 - 5.2- If there is evidence of wide-spread irregularities in any centre, the whole examination results for the whole centre will be cancelled.
 - 5.3- Reference is also made to the legal offences specified in section 15 of the Kenya National Examination Council Act, 1980. This section states:
Any person who:-
 - 5.3.1 - gains acces to examination material and knowingly reveals the content, whether orally or in writing, to an unauthorized party, whether a candidate or not:
OR
 - 5.3.2 - willfully and maliciously damages examination material; or
OR
 - 5.3.3 - is not registered to take a particular Council's examination but, with intents to impersonate, presents or attempts to present himself to take the part of an enrolled candidate, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or a fine not exceeding five thousand shillings or both such imprisonment and fine
